AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS DRILL FOR CLASS PLAY BIOLOGY CLASSES TAKE FIELD TRIP

Exceptionally fine work has been done recently by the several seniors who are to take parts in the coming class play, "Amarylly of Clothes Line Alley." This clever playlet will take place on Thursday and Friday evenings, May 3rd and 4th. Miss Terry, who is the instructor of the oral English department, reports fine progress by stating that all members of the entire cast have now thoroughly learned their parts. However, rehearsals are held three evenings a week and every afternoon in an effort to make this year's performance the best of its kind ever presented at Glendale High School. Don't forget those dates, May 3rd and 4th!

Yesterday the third and fourth period biology classes were dismissed from the class room so that they could go on a short bug-hunting expedition. They divided into small groups of about four or five, each group starting out in a different direction. As the weather was quite warm, it was an ideal day for the young entomologists, and a few rare specimens were found among the catch. Walter Beach was fortunate enough to unearth three of the very rare species of fledgelonious quinqui maculata.

Yesterday afternoon the second baseball team played its first game, and was defeated by Polytechnic High School by the score of 6 to 3. However, the result does not imply that the boys did not do themselves justice. Some misunderstanding on the part of the Poly boys found Glendale without opposition when they arrived, but the first team of the city boys volunteered to take their place. From the showing made by the second team, the first team had better look out or they will lose their jobs.

WOMEN WILL ORGANIZE

Mrs. William Herman West who was named as chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Home Guards at the big mass meeting Wednesday evening announces that a meeting will be held at the High school, Monday afternoon at 3:15 to consider organization. It is expected that the women will be as enthusiastic as the men for home protection in the present crisis, and as Mrs. West is a splendid leader and is filled with patriotic enthusiasm, Monday afternoon's meeting promises to be a rousing one.

NIGHT SCHOOL MASS MEETING

All persons interested in the organization of a Night School to be conducted by the Glendale Union High School are urged to be present at a mass meeting held under the auspices of the High School P. T. A. next Monday evening for the purpose of informally discussing the need of such a school—the courses to be offered, and the wishes of the patrons of the Glendale Union High School district relative thereto.

If you or any of your friends have an interest in this movement be sure to come and pass the word along to others. Your suggestions are desired and your advice solicited. The meeting should be able to present to the board of trustees some valuable information upon which to base their action in the matter.

The meeting will be held in the Auditorium of the High School next Monday evening April 16 at 8 o'clock.

Mr. R. G. Van Cleve who has been Principal of the Los Angeles Night High School for several years will tell of the work being done in the city schools and will be glad to answer questions concerning the Night School work.

If interested, do not fail to come and feel perfectly free to participate in the informal discussion of this important undertaking and its needs.t2

GUARD ASKS ARMS

COMMITTEE OF TWENTY-FIVE PRESENTS RESOLUTION TO TRUSTEES

As per appointment made after the big Home Guard mass meeting in the High School auditorium Tuesday evening, the Committee of twenty-five met at the Chamber of Commerce last night. So much public interest was shown in the work of this Committee that about forty citizens of Glendale were present, including a dozen or more ladies.

Temporary Chairman A. T. Cowan stated the object of the meeting. Mr. John Hyde Braly was elected permanent chairman and Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, secretary. The chairman called for suggestions to discuss the best plan of proceedure. Finally it was decided to adopt the suggestion of Mr. Church, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, which is embodied in the following resolutions. The chairman appointed a sub-committee of five to draft the resolutions, consisting of Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Messrs. Frederick Baker, W. L. Church, John R. White, C. L. V. Moore and Prof. H. L. Howe.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and the committee of 25 proceeded at once to the City Hall Council Chamber. President Braly stated the object of their coming. At his request Mr. White read the resolutions, as follows:

Whereas, a Home Guard has been organized for the purpose of protecting the lives and homes of the people of Glendale. Such guard numbering 238 at present; and whereas it is necessary that such guard be equipped with suitable arms, ammunition, etc., the estimated initial expense of which will be about $10,000.00.

Be it resolved by this committee appointed in pursuance of the action of the citizens of Glendale in mass meeting assembled, that such expense should be borne by the entire city and paid by taxation, and resolved further: that this committee requests the Honorable Board of Trustees to take immediate steps to obtain such additional state legislation as may be necessary for the City of Glendale to raise money by taxation for this purpose and that said Board also take steps to obtain the cooperation of all the other municipalities of the state in securing such legislation.

And be it further resolved, that it is the sense of this committee that said Board of Trustees should immediately authorize out of the present funds on hand sufficient expenditure to purchase complete equipment including two machine guns for one hundred and nine members of such home guard.

And be it further resolved, that these resolutions be forthwith presented by the Chairman of our Committee to the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale.

President Thompson of the City Council received the resolutions, said the Board was heartily in sympathy with them and would use every endeavor to carry out the suggested program within their limitations prescribed by law. At the next regular meeting of the Board Thursday evening, April 19, the Board will have a plan formulated and perhaps partly carried out. It will then give a definite answer to the Committee of Twenty-five.

Thereupon, Chairman Braly obtained permission from the President of the Board of Trustees and had a formal adjournment of the Committee of twenty-five to meet at the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday evening for further action.

CASA VERDUGO FORMS STRONG HOME GUARD

The second mass meeting of residents in the North Glendale territory for the purpose of organizing a company of Home Guards was held at the Central avenue school house Wednesday evening, when a large delegation of both men and women were present. Over 70 men enrolled. During the progress of the meeting various committees on finance and Red Cross were appointed and the election of the following officers for the Home Guards was made: W. B. Kelly, captain; A. R. Dimick, first lieutenant; E. K. Barnes, second lieutenant.

After the meeting the Home Guards spent a full hour and a half in drilling under the able leadership of Capt. H. Henry of the U. S. A. Officers Reserve Corps.

A Woman's Auxiliary Corps was also organized and committees appointed, who will report at the next meeting next Wednesday evening, when the Home Guards will also meet.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

CONSIDER WAYS AND MEANS FOR EQUIPPING HOME GUARD

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale met in regular session at the City Hall, Thursday evening. There were present: J. S. Thompson, president of the Board of Trustees; Trustees Chas. Grist, R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman and G. B. Woodberry; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of the Public Service Department; E. M. Lynch, ctiy engineer; George H. Herald, city marshal; A. H. Lankford, fire marshal.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Communication was read from Stanley S. Frentz calling attention of the Board to the recent decision of Attorney General Webb as to the authority of municipalities to expend funds for charitable purposes. Mr. Frentz requested that the City Trustees set aside a fund to be devoted to the relief of the deserving poor and other persons who may be the legitimate objects of charity within the City of Glendale. He further volunteered to give his services free of charge in doing any work required for the proper distribution of such a fund. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the communication was referred to the Finance Committee.

The report of the Tax Collector for week ending April 11th was read, showing receipts amounting to $957.33; total collections to date, $41,814.89. Report was ordered to be filed.

The Chairman of the Board reported that the Glendale Home Guard recently organized desired a meeting place for meeting to be held Saturday evening next and, on motion of Trustee Woodberry, the use of the Council Chamber was tendered for this object.

Applications for permit to conduct a dairy were received from H. W. Beckman and Frank Campbell, both being approved by the Milk Inspector, were on motion of Trustee Jackson, ordered to be granted.

Another application for permit to conduct a dairy was presented from George and Clarence Blanchard, which, not having the approval of the Milk Inspector, was ordered to be laid over for one week. Mr. Blanchard, the father of the applicant, addressed the Board briefly upon the subject.

A communication was presented and read from L. C. Russell and Henry Walsma, proprietors of baking establishments, setting forth their objections to the ordinance regulating the size of bread loaves, and requesting that it be amended. Mr. Walsma addressed the Board, stating that under the ordinance with the price of flour steadily advancing, it will be impossible for local bakers to continue in business. Several members of the Board expressed themselves as having been under the impression at the time they voted for the ordinance that the bakers of Glendale were in favor of the measure. On motion of Trustee Woodberry, it was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The City Manager reported having secured from Mrs. Jennie E. Krukow the use of Lots 17 and 19, Block 21, and presented a contract giving the city the use of said lots for the Forestry Department for the term of three years. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, it was ordered that the Chairman of the Board be authorized to sign the agreement.

The Manager of the Public Service Department reported that Mr. Anderson of Sycamore Canyon, outside of the city limits, desires the Public Service Department to furnish him water. No action was taken.

The City Attorney reported that he had received a telegram calling his attention to the fact that certain legislation is pending in Sacramento calculated to curtail the power of the city to abate nuisances, stating further that he had conferred with the Chairman of the Board and the City Manager, and that a telegram had been sent to Assemblyman Wishard requesting that he oppose the bill. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, this action was approved.

At 9:15 a delegation of citizens consisting of a committee of twenty-five appointed at a mass meeting at the High School as a Finance Committee to devise ways and means of providing funds for the equipment of the home guard of Glendale, appeared before the Trustees and Mr. J. H. Braly explained the purpose of the committee. He called upon Mr. John Robert White, Jr., to read a resolution which the committee had adopted in regard to a proposal that the City of Glendale provide in the tax levy a fund for this object. The City Attorney stated to the committee that he was unable at the present time to advise as to whether

ENCOURAGING RETURNS

MOTORISTS OF THIS SECTION WILL BACK UP "UNCLE SAM"

(By Albert Marple)

By their prompt and generous response to the letters sent out recently by the Automobile Club of Southern California the motorists of this section of the Golden State are demonstrating that they possess some of the "old fashioned" patriotism, such as we sometimes hear "Grandpa" tell about. They are showing that, if the need arises, they will "turn in" all they have of this world's goods and will do so willingly. In fact, they are enthusiastic over the possible opportunity of being of service to their nation and their flag.

The letter sent out recently to all its members by the Auto Club, asked the motorists if, in the event of an emergency, the member would be willing to place at the disposal of the Government, subject to a reasonable rental, his or her machine, to be used in removing troops or civilians to or from any particular zone. Enclosed with the letters were return mailing cards. These are coming in with gratifying promptness and in unexpected volume. Thus far more than 2,000 have been received at the club headquarters, and out of all these there is but one "peace at any price" motorist. This shows whether or not this part of the nation is behind the President.

Many of those answering were women and of all those replying at least 50 per cent. offered to drive their own machines. Not only are pleasure cars being offered, but motor trucks and busses are being listed, these coming from business firms, hotels, garages, private parties, etc. For instance, one hotel in San Diego offers sixteen busses, these having an aggregate capacity of 240 persons, the management going on to say that a similar number of like machines would be built and donated if desired. All sections of Southern California are being represented in this matter. It is believed that the replies voice the sentiment of all of the automobile owners in this section of the country, and possibly the nation as a whole.

In the event of a call being made for these machines the mobilization and handling of the autos will be taken care of by the Auto Club, which has been given this authority by the Quartermaster's Department of the Western Branch of the United States Army. To say the least the Automobile Club is elated over the returns thus far reported in this canvas for cars and is proud of its members for responding so generously.

The returns thus far reported, by counties, is as follows:

Los Angeles, 502; San Diego, 102: San Bernardino, 84; Santa Barbara, 80; Riverside, 75; Ventura, 60; Kern, 53; Imperial, 52; Orange, 43; Tulare, 41; and San Luis Obispo, 33. The greatest per centage of replies, in comparison to the membership has, thus far, been received from San Diego county. From Los Angeles city alone 950 motorists signified their willingness to loan their cars to the government.

REV. HERBERT BOOTH SMITH

This evening at the Presbyterian church at 7:30, Rev. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor Immanuel Presbyterian church, will preach the regular preparatory sermon. The general public is cordially invited. All members of the church are expected. The session will meet at the close of the service to interview those who expect to unite with the church next Sabbath morning.

Regular quarterly communion service Sunday morning, April 15th. Reception to new members Thursday evening, April 19th. Mrs. Zetta Gibbons will sing this evening.

CENTRAL AVENUE CIVIC CENTER

A special treat is in store for those who go to the Central avenue civic center this Saturday evening. A number of very fine stereopticon slides of the Yellowstone park will be given, with a lecture by Mr. C. A. Marcy, physical director of the Glendale schools. The illustrated lecture will be given at 7:45, and is free, the public being very cordially invited to attend. Those failing to come will miss a treat, as the slides are exceptionally good. Saturday night will be parents night at the center.

HOME PREPAREDNESS SHOULDERING THE SPADE AND THE HOE

Now that we understand what can be done with the back yard garden the next question to take up is how to do it to get the most out of our labor. If everyone with a back yard should plant a garden in it the result would put a big dent in the high cost of living.

The city man has an hour or two in the morning or an hour or two in the afternoon after dinner. The exercise will be just what he needs, for he will be getting back to nature. The outlay is small for the return it will bring.

With a little care, here are some of the vegetables that can be raised in a back yard garden if the instructions are followed:

Beans, cabbage, parsnips, cauliflower, onions, lettuce, cucumbers, peas, beets, carrots, radishes, asparagus. It will be seen that in this list are vegetables that are commanding record prices right now.

With prices the way they are, every available foot of ground should be made productive. In the work the interest of the children should be enlisted, for they can help, and in helping their minds will be directed in a path that will be of value in later years.

The average back yard is 50x50. First clean it up. Get those ashes up out of the cellar, and if there are no paths about the yard use some of the ashes to make them.

Be sure the paths are straight. Trenches should be dug along the paths eighteen inches deep to secure drainage away from the house if possible. The soil thus found can be scattered about the yard and used to fill depressions.

Put in these trenches the stones, broken bottles, bits of brick and crockery that may be found. Leave the trenches in this condition until the soil is dry for spading, where the good beds are to be made.

The spade should be driven deep and the soil broken fine in turning it over. All the stones found should be tossed into the drainage ways.

Before the garden is spaded give it a good covering of manure and see that it is turned under the soil. Then rake well, making the soil as fine as you can. This should be done in sections about six feet wide across the garden, so that the soil will not be packed down again by tramping on it.

GOOD CARRIAGE OF BODY

It is of great importance to the child to train him to a good carriage of body. The power to hold the body erect is wholly lacking at birth, and is acquired, with some difficulty, at about two years of age.

While the body is developing in every part the mother should take frequent note of the manner in which the child stands, how he sits and how he carries his head. An erect spine is necessary not only for beauty and grace but for health. Slouching, stooping or crooked shoulders detract much from the appearance, and the curved spine allows the upper part of the body to press into the trunk and deprives the stomach, heart and other organs of some of their proper space so that they must work at a disadvantage.

In order that a child may learn the habit of an upright carriage, much exercise is necessary, especially outdoors. This will strengthen the muscles of the back and neck and make it easier to hold the body erect later when growth is rapid.

Sitting on the floor, bent over playthings and toys, sitting too long in a high chair or baby carriage, dangling the feet, carrying books or papers on one hip or shoulder are some things which tend to twist the spine and distort the body.

The mother should watch carefully to see that such troubles are arrested at this period, while the bones are soft. If difficulties are encountered it must be remembered that they will sometimes disappear of themselves if the general health is improved.

ALLIED COMMISSION REDRAWING EUROPE'S RAILROAD MAP TO AVOID GERMANY

Allied railroad commissions to-day are preparing to redraw Europe's railroad map. They are already planning the destruction of the allied dependence on the German lines in the "war after the war."

For example, a proposed railroad connects Bordeaux with Odessa, avoiding Middle Europe and passing around Turin and the Italian-to-be Triest. Other lines, perfecting the development of allied territory, are also in prospect.

French and English railroad officials are now in Italy, studying the situation with allied officials. The commissioners are making a careful tour of investigation throughout the allied countries, it is said, and work on the contemplated lines will be rushed to completion, as soon as the war ends.

MAKE COUNTY POOR HOUSES MORE COMFORTABLE

Housing experts are preparing plans to be presented at the National Conference of Charities & Correction at Pittsburgh in June which will make life more liveable for destitute old men and women in county poorhouses all over the country. The plans will be presented in competitive form.

No other class of dependents has been so completely neglected as the aged, according to the statement of Dr. I. L. Nascher of New York. "The child dependent has the world for its guardian; the aged dependent is disowned by his relatives," says this eminent authority. "There are scores of works dealing with the child in the home and in institutions. Until recently there was not a single work on the institutional care of the aged." Dr. Nascher is the author of the only American scientific work on the subject, a book entitled "Geriatrics."

To-day there is scarcely a home for the aged in which the special problem of feeding is understood or even considered. Dietries are arranged either haphazard, or else copied from institutions of a different character.

SUNLAND

Mrs. Chris Beckmeyer of Los Angeles is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. C. Spencer, on Summet Ave. this week.

Mr. A. D. Russel of Ventura county spent a few days this week with his daughter, Mrs. W. O. Huse.

Mrs. C. W. Knapp of Los Angeles accompanied by friends are camping in the Big Tujunga canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Griffith spent the week end at the Oak Home Ranch, the guests of Mrs. Griffith's brother, I. E. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Eagler and family of Santa Monica spent Easter at the home of Mr. Geo. Harmen.

A play of Little Red Riding Hood will be given Saturday afternoon, April 14th, at Tujunga. Benefit of Valley children. Hour and place will be later announced.

Mr. Geo. and W. O. Huse came down from Fresno Tuesday for a week's stay at home and to rustle up buyers for a beautiful 750 acre stock ranch in Madera county.

One of the pleasures of the week was a Hard Time party given at the home of C. C. Nicholdson by Miss Esther Nicholdson and Winifred Herron Friday, April 6. About twenty-five guests were present. The evening was spent in games and music. Dainty refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time was reported.

Owing to the ill health of the pastor and the lack of interest on the part of the people of the Valley, they are talking of discontinuing the evening services for a time. Rev. Wester is a fine speaker and Sunday after Sunday comes from Pasadena to deliver his excellent sermons and the people are so indifferent that the past few Sunday evenings he has preached to many empty chairs. Let every one attend church next Sunday morning and evening and encourage Rev. Wester. Morning services 11:00 o'clock. Evening services at 7:30. Everybody invited.

The committee on the State Highway have nearly all the right-of-way provided for. Report comes from the north that the Governor has ordered the completion of five gaps in the State Highway including the one between San Fernando and Tujunga. This is good news.

In the survey for annexation the City Council took in three bridge sites of the proposed State Highway but they have postponed action to avoid conflicting completion of the Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thomas spent Easter Sunday at the Tavern.

Easter was fittingly and appropriately observed at the local church. The church was beautifully decorated in calla lilies, smilax and bridal wreath. A special program had been prepared by the children of the Sunday school. Special music under the leadership of Mr. Walter Maygrove. A short address on the "Significance of Easter" by Rev. Wester concluded the morning services.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tench of Los Angeles, accompanied by Mr. George Hitchcock, were guests Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Tench's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blumfield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shelly of Burbank and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Shelly of Tujunga Terrace, were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel MacVine motored to Santa Barbara last Monday for a few days' visit with friends, prior to their departure for the north.

The Misses Jessie and Lorine Ker will leave soon for their home in the east. Mrs. Lipincot will return to Sunland to resume charge of the telephone.

The Misses Ker have made many friends in the Valley who regret to see them leave.

School election passed off quietly not many votes poled. Mr. Lancaster was elected by a small majority over Mr. Garner.

The new cash dry good store had its opening last Saturday. The store was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers and Mrs. Ella Barnhard met the customers at the door with a pleasant word of greeting. This is something Sunland has long needed, a good dry goods store.

Rally of Home Guards at Bolton hall Thursday night. Music by the Valley Band.

Mr. Alfred Adams Jr. shipped a car load of olives to his trade in San Francisco Thursday. The work for this year in the olive factory is about completed, about two weeks will finish it up.

A card from Robert Rowley states that most of the students have joined the army and will go into camp. $9,000 has been appropriated for camp supplies.

The high cost of living has caused the people to begin to cultivate and plant seed. Everybody seems to be making garden.

Easter was well observed last Sunday at Tujunga M. E. church. A nicely arranged musical and literary program was given, followed by a short address by the pastor. Five of the Sunday school pupils were taken into the church. It was a very impressive service and will long be remembered by all who attended.

On Thursday evening April 5th the Echo class of Tujunga M. E. church gave an advertisement social in the church basement. Old Dutch Cleanser, Aunt Jemima's Baker chocolate girls, Quaker salt, Iris coffee, the Ford was on hand and did a thriving business, The Bernhard dry goods store was well advertised, and last but not least was heard the cry of the newsboy, calling Try-City Progress five cents a copy. Refreshments were served and at a late hour all returned home, thanking the Echo class for the good time they had enjoyed.

SONG OF THE MOTOR TRUCK

(By William T. Perkins)

Born of the earth am I,—
Sinews of steel and blood of fire,
Restless pinions that dare not tire,
I leap to the call of the world's desire—
Child of the earth am I.

Strength of the earth have I, —
Strength of a thousand brawny arms,
Courage that holds through the world's alarms;
I rouse at the touch of the hand that charms—
Son of the earth am I.

Lord of the earth am I,—
Proudly I bear, through the thund'ring streets
Down to the sea, where the world's pulse beats,
Fruitage of earth for her circling fleets—
King of the earth am I.

L'ENVOI

Servant of man am I,—
Glad in my strength to do his will—
Glad for the task, whether good or ill—
Glad for the valley, glad for the hill—
Slave to his wish am I.

Miss Carrie M. Noble, vice principal of the Third street school, read a paper on "Morals and Manners in the School" at the meeting of the Doran street Parent-Teacher association Wednesday, giving many good thoughts and outlining the work along this line in the school, teaching obedience and cleanliness in the first grades, and instilling the principles of kindness and sympathy in the higher grades. She spoke of the importance of the child being properly taught at home and being set a good example there. A beautiful piano duet was played by Miss Ellen Moncton and Miss Esterly, the accomplished musicians responding also to an encore, and refreshments and a social hour completed an enjoyable afternoon.

On Tuesday the primary enrollment of the company was 70 with prospects of a final enrollment of 100.

ANNUAL CONVENTIONS P. T. A.

Among members of the Glendale Parent-Teacher associations who attended the sixth annual convention of the First District, Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers associations at Symphony hall in Los Angeles yesterday were Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. N. C. Kelley, Mrs. Harry Duey, Mrs. Florence S. Kurtz, Mrs. L. Sampson, Mrs. V. B. Blakely, Mrs. G. F. Dewey, Mrs. O. E. Wright, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. S. A. Cassell, Mrs. John R. White, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. P. S. McNutt and Mrs. Minnette Sherman.

The president Mrs. Florence Galentine presided and the reports and addresses were very satisfying as to the progress shown and the work being accomplished by these earnest workers.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Glendale Federation, gave an interesting report on "The Work We Have Accomplished," and Mrs. Florence S. Kurtz, patriotic chairman of the district gave a report on the patriotic work done in the county. She stated that Chicago is priding herself on the fact that her school children now salute the flag every Monday morning and memorize the national anthems, while that rule was established in California a long time ago. The patriotic slogan of our county is "Service to our fellowman, whether it be in country, state or home." Mrs. Kurtz called attention to the words of President Wilson, that America is taking arms only in the interests of humanity and has no desire to war on the German people, and she urged parents and teachers to inculcate in the children the spirit of kindness and consideration towards the German pupils in the schools. Following her report Prof. Knoles of the history department of the University of Southern California gave a very splendid address on "Patriotism", being one of the most delightful speakers of the day. Another notable address was the one by J. S. McGaw, D. D., on "The Bible in the Public Schools" and so masterly was his handling of the subject and so convincing his argument, that he was listened to with intense interest and pleasure even by those who did not agree with him as to the desirability of placing the Bible in the public schools. The address of Prof. Ernest J. Hopkins on "The Newspaper as a Former of Public Opinion" was another of the bright pleasing addresses of the day. Mrs. P. S. McNutt of Glendale, district parliamentarian, gave an interesting talk on parliamentary law in the forenoon, and Mrs. Minnette Sherman served on the election board. Today's program was also full of good things, the program this morning being devoted to the topics of hygiene, child labor and recreation.

Those who attended the reception at the Friday Morning club house last night from Glendale were Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Fannie T. Stone, Mrs. L. Sampson, Mrs. Florence S. Kurtz, Mrs. S. P. Blakely, Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, and Mrs. A. N. Lord. Among the speakers of the evening were Col. John Sovieski, Mark Keppel, Mrs. Galentine, and others.

MOTHERS CLUB KOFFEE KLATCH

The koffee klatch held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Wattles by the Mothers Club of the Acacia avenue school, Tropico, Wednesday proved to be a very delightful affair. Several musical numbers were given by Miss Louisiana Spaulding and Miss Ruth Mitchell which were greatly enjoyed. Everyone joined in singing "America". A Heart-to-Heart Talk

These are the times that try the housewives' souls, but we trust none will allow themselves to be stampeded by the menace of high prices. None of us can stay the advance in the price of household necessities, but if the more favored ones begin to buy in quantities to hoard for harder times, they will make it the worse for poor people by sweeping the market bare and causing still greater advances. Let us share alike and thus aid our country and our fellowmen in the hour of need.

Happily, new vegetables are arriving and the price of eggs is extremely reasonable considering the unheard-of altitude of feed values. Peas and new potatoes, asparagus, lettuce, carrots, beets, turnips and rhubarb are plentiful and cheap.

In fruits there are still good apples and oranges are plentiful. Canned pineapple and peaches are still cheap. Big cans of yellow free peaches for 15c. Canned peas from 10c up. No. 3 cans solid pack tomatoes still 15c, though worth 16c wholesale. Delicious red kidney beans still 15c a can and pork and beans from 10c to 25c. Many other goods in proportion. Let's all cheer up and face the situation bravely. All will yet be well with us.

RIFLE CLUB SMOKES UP

W. E. Palmer, Secretary of the Seven Hills Rifle and Revolver club, announces that he is sending to-day to the Benicia Arsenal of this state for 50 new rifles for the members, who are purchasing these guns at $5.56 each.

They received, about two weeks ago, their first shipment of 25, which are now at the club grounds. Also expect a shipment to-day of 10, which will give the new club 85 rifles.

Mr. Palmer says he has picked up some 4000 empty shells in the past two weeks, which goes to show that the club has been "smoking up" some. The two clubs now have a membership of some 400 active shooters, which proves that Mr. Palmer's proposition appeals to a great many, including such men as the Honorable Mayor Woodman and John L. Butler, Chief of Police of Los Angeles, who have joined the club and will be seen soon on the firing line.

About a hundred members were out on the range at the last shoot and a much larger crowd is expected Sunday.

BUILT THAT WAY

"Is this cellar perfectly dry?" inquired the prospective purchaser.

"Well," responded the talented agent, with a knowing wink, "it always had been until the prohibition law went into effect."

THE PACIFIC COAST'S OPPORTUNITY

The United States needs wooden motor-boats of size and speed to carry 6-inch guns and to overtake the swiftest submarine, these to be used as convoys. The Government also needs ships to use as transports in case of overseas and to carry supplies to the navy. American commerce needs ships to carry our goods to all parts of the world. At least two-thirds of our commerce must pass through the barred zone in order to reach its market. Our best customers are the allies, and they and the European neutrals have hitherto done our carrying, but they no longer have enough ships for the purpose. The United States has the material and must train the labor to supply the deficiency, that our customers may not languish for lack of ships. It is up to us to make good the shortage.

The Pacific Coast is best able to build the ships required, for its abundant fir timber is unequaled in size and strength. Every harbor on the Coast should be as thickly lined with shipyards as are the Clyde, the Tyne and the Tees in Britain or the Elbe in Germany. There is every reason why the fame of the Pacific Coast motor-ship should be as great as was that of the Maine clipper ship in the middle of the nineteenth century.

With the Navy calling for at least 100 armed motor-boats and with the Shipping Board calling for a 1000 ships of 3000 to 4000 tons each, there is ample inducement for much further extension of the shipbuilding industry. Not for years after the war is over can its ravages among ocean carriers be made good. The demand for steel is likely to continue heavy to replace all kinds of structures which have been destroyed, and the price is not likely to become normal after several years of peace. Wooden ships will be demanded to supply the immediate need.

Upon the wisdom of the Government in revising the shipping laws and upon the enterprise and ability of the Pacific Coast people will hang the question whether this new industry is to be permanently established. There is no reasonable doubt about its success for some years to come. This section has the material and the location to take the lead.—The Manufacturer.

AMERICANISM

That in us which more distinctly than anything else we call Americanism—our faith in humanity, our love of equality. One cannot claim that Americans of English origin are alone the depositaries of this belief, this passion. The ideal America, which is the only real America, is not in the keeping of any one race; her destinies are too large for that custody; the English race is only one of many races with which her future rests.—William Dean Howells.

TO SAVE FARM WASTE

At Middle River, California, has been established a new industry which promises to be of considerable importance to farmers in that vicinity. This is what is known as Dry Ventor System of putting up vegetables. The principal vegetable to be used now is potatoes. By the process in use potatoes and other vegatables are so dried, it is said, to save all the flavor and to keep them fresh any reasonable length of time. All small potatoes can thus be saved as can the waste of most kinds of vegetables. The company is a New York concern with much capital and promises to save one-third of the waste which usually goes on at the average farm.
